

Why do you want to do this IVEC Bible training?

Do you have special needs, like wheelchair, doctor's appointments or do you need glasses or hearing aid? Maybe we can help you with some of these when you come to Darwin for your studies.

Please send this to us in the envelope

Send this form to your dean or to a teacher that you know at the College.

Joy Sandefur is the Anglican Dean.
Helen Richmond is the Uniting Dean.
Kerin Coulehan is the Catholic Dean.
Rob Haynes is the Anglican Coordinator.
Andy Peart is a support trainer and teacher

Freecall 1800 645 147

Please fill in your answers here.

My name is

My address is

My Church is

A good phone number to contact me is

Selected modules from Introductory
Vocational Education
Certificate I

IVEC Bible

Semester 2
2010

40512 SA

Are you interested?

This form tells you about the IVEC Bible course that you can do when you come to Nungalinya College in Darwin in 2010.

- Decide what you want to do about studies this year.
- Talk to your church leaders and get permission to come to Darwin for four weeks.
- Maybe you have to talk to your family and people at work to get time off to do your studies.
- Look at the timetable on the next page and tick the dates that suit you best.
- Send this form back to the College.

Studies in IVEC Bible will develop your skills and confidence to:

- Read English
- Write English
- Speak in English
- Learn more Bible
- Read more Bible
- Write Bible verses
- Decide about God and using your gifts

All students have to do some training and practice some skills back in their own church and community (mixed mode). The College staff will support you to keep track of what you are doing back home, and keep encouraging you to grow more in your English and in your Christian life.

In this IVEC Bible course the students will get a Certificate of Attainment, but it is not a full Certificate qualification. Students who complete the IVEC Bible course can enrol later at Nungalinya College in Certificate II or Certificate III courses that offer studies in Theology, Ministry & Pastoral Care.

Please tick next to the dates you want to come to Nungalinya College in 2010.

July 26 to August 20	<input type="checkbox"/>
-----------------------------	--------------------------

August 30 to September 24	<input type="checkbox"/>
----------------------------------	--------------------------

October 4 to October 29	<input type="checkbox"/>
--------------------------------	--------------------------

Money: The first time you come in, bring $100. That will be for the whole year. After that you don't have to pay any more for 2010 studies at Nungalinya College.